CARRANZA, IN FULL FLIGHT, FACES CAPTURE BY REBELS

AUTOMOBILES FROM MICHIGAN FACTORY REACH CINCINNATI BY ROUNDABOUT ROUTE, GOING ENTIRE DISTANCE BY WATER

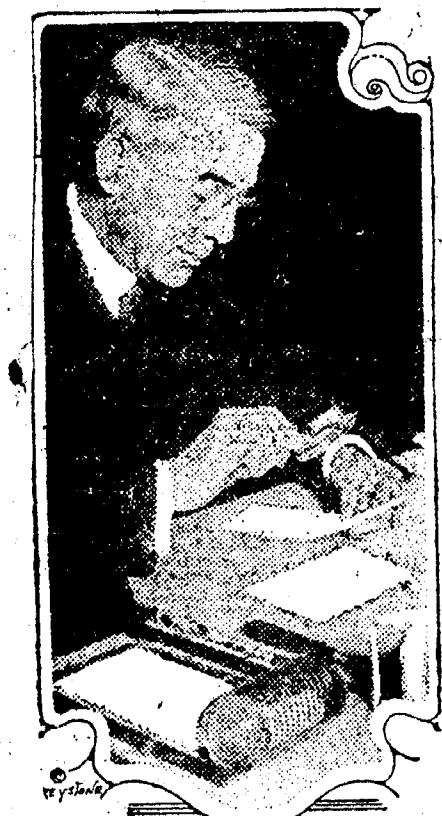

When the towboat Sprague of St. Louis poked its tow of barges laden with more than 400 automobiles into the Cincinnati harbor several days ago, another leg in an odd traffic journey had been completed. The automobiles were built in a Michigan factory, shipped by water to Chicago, then to St. Louis and on to Cincinnati, from which point they will be sent overland to their destinations under their own power. On the return trip the Sprague will fill the barges with 600 automobiles driven overland to Cincinnati from Michigan, but destined for Memphis, Vicksburg and Florida points.

ETERNAL TRIANGLE IN LOCAL COURTS

As the culmination of alleged undue familiarity of J. H. Mobley with Mrs. Aaron Jackson, the affair was aired in juvenile court and in Justice E. G. Abbott's court this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson moved to Canton from Coshocton some time ago and Mrs. Jackson had returned here recently.

Jackson made complaint to the juvenile authorities charging Mobley with breaking up his home and contributing to the delinquency of the Jackson children. Mobley is reported to have been fined $50 in juvenile court, although no information concerning the affair was given out by the juvenile authorities.

Mobley then filed an affidavit in Justice Abbott's court charging Jackson with using vile language and Jackson was fined $5 and costs. Constable Carl Pangle made the arrest. Jackson has returned to Canton and his wife is remaining in Coshocton. It is alleged that Jackson accused Mobley in Justice Abbott's court of being the father of one of the children, and that Mobley did not deny the charge.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Word received here at noon today says the schooner Rosamond is sinking seven miles off Moss Beach, 25 miles south of here. The Rosamond has a crew of twelve.

STRAW HATS HAVE ONLY THREE MORE DAYS OF VACATION

The local straw hat season will open May 20.

This date has been arbitrarily determined by local clothiers.

Popularity of the "grass lid" is expected to transcend that of other years, chiefly because of the moderate cost.

Prices will be little higher than last year, if any, clothiers say.

COSHOCTON GETS CHAUTAUQUA THIS YEAR JULY 3-9

The seventh annual Coshocton Chautauqua will be held July 3 to 9 according to word received by the committee in charge. The big seven-day event that has become a feature every summer will again be held on the Chestnut-st school lawn.

Among some of the attractions to be offered is the concert by Miss Jessie Isabel Christian of the Chicago Opera Co. Miss Christian will appear in a recital program the evening of the sixth day. In the past no attraction has proved more popular in Coshocton than the play companies that have presented comedies at chautauqua. This year local chautauqua patrons are to be favored with Willie Collier's successful comedy, "Nothing but the Truth." A number that will appeal to Coshocton people is the lecture to be given by Dr. S. Parkes Cadman. It will be remembered that Dr. Cadman appeared on the Peoples' Lecture course not long ago and his audience was delighted with his lecture. His return to Coshocton will be awaited with much interest by all those who heard him speak here before.

Chautauqua tickets for the season of 1920 will be sold by the Young Women's Christian Association.

CHAUTAUQUA WEEK AT WARSAW WILL BE JUNE 25-29

The annual week's program of the Warsaw Community Chautauqua will be given this year from June 25 to June 29 inclusive at Warsaw under canvas.

This year's program is expected to be the best in the history of the enterprise, which has proved popular in that community.

Local officers of the Chautauqua association are: H. B. Pigman, president; Dr. J. E. Hahn, vice president; J. F. Leach, secretary and F. E. Whittemore, treasurer.

ROSCOE POSTOFFICE CHANGES LOCATIONS

Roscoe postoffice and the Le Reilly grocery have been moved into the building formerly occupied by Charles Stipes, the building having been purchased a few weeks ago by Jay Le Reilly.

It is claimed that property with modern conveniences in Coshocton is about two-thirds higher than similar property in Roscoe, despite the fact that Roscoe has better lawns and larger space for gardening.

WILSON FINDS IN PAYNE THE CANDIDATE HE WOULD TIE TO

Secretary of Interior Measures Up to the Wilson Ideal

IS HE DARK HORSE?

Governor Cox is Slated For Vice Presidential Candidacy

WASHINGTON, May 15.—John Barton Payne, Secretary of the Interior, is now mentioned as President Wilson's dark horse entry in the Democratic presidential nomination stakes at San Francisco.

Among politicians William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury is still in the betting while Governor Cox, of Ohio, is coming to be regarded as almost a sure thing for second place on the ticket. But circumstances may arise making McAdoo's nomination inadvisable, it is pointed out in which case the administration must have a candidate already groomed and waiting.

This man, it is said, may be Secretary Payne.

The secretary has been a frequent caller at the white house of late. He has seen the president a number of times recently, more often, perhaps, than any other member of the cabinet. In addition to this some of the president's advisers have frequently been to see Payne and these things, coupled with the known fact that he stands ace high with the head of the administration may be behind the report.

It was understood that Secretary Payne was being considered as the new liquidating officer succeeding Director General Walker D. Hines, of the railroad administration, who goes out of office today, the secretary to take on the new duties in addition to those he already has. But this was an explanation which did not explain, leastwise to the satisfaction of politicians, watching the situation.

A deeper meaning was given the goings and comings of the secretary and the president's advisers, and the meaning, of course, was labeled political.

Secretary Payne is said to have won the implicit confidence of the president who considers him a marvel of administrative ability. On the treaty he is understood to have agreed with the president to a "T."

BROWN HEADS PUBLIC HEALTH CENTER BOARD

Frederickson, chairman of the Coshocton County Red Cross Chapter, has appointed the following committee to supervise the organization and functioning of the Public Health Center which is to have an important place in the organization's Peace Time program: Thomas G. Brown, chairman; Mrs. Hugh M. Hay, secretary; O. B. Clifton, representing the city schools; Sup't. L. C. Shaw, representing the county schools; Dr. J. G. Smalles representing the physicians; Miss Marian Avea, representing the Young Women's Christian Association; Glenn E. Smith, representing the public health board; W. H. Tankersley representing the Boy Scouts; Mrs. J. S. Elliott representing the Coshocton Federation of Women's Clubs; Miss Mildred Douglas representing the Salvation Army; Mrs. A. F. Wolfe representing the Associated Charities; C. K. Clemens representing the Rotary Club; Miss Anna L. Russell and Mrs. C. E. McMillan representing the county branches.

As the personnel indicates, the committee is composed not only of members of the Red Cross executive committee, but also of other co-operating organizations.

Application has already been made for a public health nurse and the committee expects to meet soon for the definite formulation of its program.

SENIORS ARE SELLING CLASS PLAY TICKETS

Much interest is being shown in the Senior class play, "The Compromising Telegram" which is to be given Friday evening at the Central auditorium. The tickets have been placed in the hands of every member of the class and are being sold rapidly. Whether the seats will be reserved or not is to be decided the first of the week. Should the performance be given twice the seats will probably not be reserved either night.

LIVELY TILT INVOLVING POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENTS AND MAYOR TISH IS BREWING AT CITY HALL, 'TIS SAID

Is Coshocton soon to be involved in next week's war between the police department and the Mayor?

This question became of paramount interest Saturday night when Mayor W. S. Tish announced that next week he would call on the civil service commission of the city to hold an examination to create an eligible list for the following positions:

Chief of police, police lieutenant, one patrolman. Tish also announced that he was dissatisfied with the eligible list for firemen and would call upon the commission to hold another examination to strengthen the list sometime.

Queried as to whether he is dissatisfied with the department Mayor Tish refused to be quoted.

"This much you can say," was his answer, "I am desirous of creating as strong an eligible list both for the fire and police departments as is permitted by the civil service law."

"A fireman is a necessary adjunct to the fire department. At the last examination held to secure eligibles for vacancies in the department made by the change to the double platoon system required by state law, two such

EMPLOYEES OF GAS CO. PLANT TREE IN HONOR OF HENRY L. DOHERTY

Fiftieth Birthday of Head of Vast Organization is Appropriately Observed Saturday Afternoon.

With fitting ceremonies Saturday afternoon the employees of The Coshocton Gas Co. paid a unique tribute of respect to Henry L. Doherty, New York, whose genius has guided the destinies of the Doherty organization throughout the country, by planting a red-leaved Shredler maple tree on the gas company's property at the north end of Third-st. in commemoration of Mr. Doherty's fiftieth birthday anniversary.

A plot of ground at the south side of the old artificial gas plant had been selected in advance and around this a hexagonal cement curb was constructed by Contractor R. N. Kirk. Twenty men and women connected with the local company gathered at the scene and participated in the celebration, which was a very pretty and impressive one. After James Lear and assistants had placed the tree in the ground each person in the assemblage threw a shovelful of dirt upon the roots, after which a picture of the tree and the participants in the planting was taken by Photographer William M. Huffman. The names of those

CINCINNATI HAS MURDER MYSTERY

CINCINNATI, O., May 15—Mystery surrounds the disappearance and possible murder by the drowning in the Ohio river of Miss Elizabeth Lasley, 70, member of a prominent family of Gallipolis, O., whose effects were found at the foot of Mills street early this morning. Miss Lasley was on her way home via Columbus from St. Petersburg, Fla., where she had been spending the winter with Miss Jeffers of Columbus.

On the river bank were found a beaded purse, fur collar and suit case containing clothing, apparently the property of Miss Lasley. A railroad ticket, Cincinnati to Columbus, was also found.

Footprints of a woman and two men gave evidence of a struggle where the articles were found.

One of the theories of the police is that Miss Lasley, while waiting for a change of trains had wandered away from the depot, was attacked robbed and thrown into the river. Search is being made for the body.

WHAT BECAME OF ALL THAT BOOZE?

CHICAGO, May 15—A number of leading Chicago liquor dealers are involved in an investigation by the revenue department, begun today, of the disappearance of 600,000 worth of contraband liquor which vanished from government warehouses here while it was being held as evidence in wartime prohibition violation cases.

Cases against the defendants were ready for trial in the federal district court when it was found that all the evidence was missing. A big shake up among prohibition officials here is looked for. Records of the warehouses concerned were seized by internal revenue agents.

who took part in the celebration were placed in a bottle and imbedded near the base of the tree.

The tree-planting idea was conceived by Mr. Doherty's business associates to appropriately observe the passing of the fiftieth milestone in his career. In each city throughout the country, where the Doherty interests have a local plant, a tree was planted in his honor.

In order to permanently mark the occasion a tablet is to be erected near the tree inscribed with the words: "Planted by the Employees of The Coshocton Gas Company in Honor of the Fiftieth Birthday of Henry L. Doherty, May 15th, 1870."

After the tree had been formally dedicated, Manager E. B. Smith of the local company gave the following sketch of Mr. Doherty's life:

"We have met here to plant this tree in celebrating the birthday anniversary of one whom we all respect and admire.

"Altho today one of the great men in financial circles and undoubtedly the greatest builder and operator of public utilities, Mr. Doherty began life humbly. He was born in Columbus, Ohio, May 15th, 1870, and at the age of twelve was newsboy in that city, the sole support of a widowed mother and two young sisters. At the age of twenty he was an engineer, at twenty-five he was manager of a public utility, at twenty-seven, he was manager of a syndicate of properties, and at thirty-four he was head of a concern of his own. Today this concern controls two hundred gas, electric and street railway companies, having twenty thousand employees in serving two million five hundred thousand people, and has oil holdings, the second largest in America.

"Mr. Doherty did not have the advantage of either a high school or a college education. He is a graduate of the 'School of Hard Knocks,' having received every phase of practical training and is in a position to appreciate its value. Consequently he is eminently fitted to blend theory and practice, not only to the interest of his own enterprises, but to the benefit of the employees, and has established three schools of his own where young men are trained to become operators of his properties, and as a result of these schools, the Doherty Companies are securing competent, energetic and scientifically trained men, men who have been inculcated with the Doherty way of doing things.

"While no doubt the success of the organization is, in a large measure, due to his personal magnetism and leadership, he modestly says 'You men are as much entitled to the credit that has come to the Doherty organization as I am.'

"His remarkable success is an il-

After Grip, "flu" or colds, the kidneys and bladder are often affected—called nephritis, or inflammation of kidneys.

This is the red flag of danger—better be wise and check the further inroads of kidney disease by obtaining that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, known as Anurie (anti-uric-acid), because it expels the uric acid poison from the body and removes those pains, such as backache, rheumatism in muscles and joints.

Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bug-like formations.

Send Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., ten cents for trial package of Anurie Tablets.

STEADY PROGRESS

ONE of the striking features of Prohibition to date is that its good effects are more pronounced in communities that have always been wet than in those of the south and west where the saloons have been a curiosity for years. Business men in New York, Philadelphia, Newark, Baltimore and other large cities of the east suddenly passed from an era when a drunk man could be seen on almost any down town city block at any hour of the day or night, to one in which a man under the influence of intoxicants is rarely seen.

The transition has been startling, and the wet interests in declaring that all that Prohibition needed to kill itself was more rope, were "on" decidedly wrong. They argued that if the dries won they were dry in sympathy, but did not believe that Prohibition could ever be enforced. Consequently they voted wet rather than add another ineffective and unenforceable statute to their state and federal codes.

But just the opposite result has obtained. It was the belief on the part of thousands that Prohibition WOULDNT work that kept them wet. In the old days great numbers of men declared that they were dry in sympathy, but did not believe that Prohibition could ever be enforced. Consequently they voted wet rather than add another ineffective and unenforceable statute to their state and federal codes.

But these men are now having ocular demonstrations of the benefits of a dry nation. They see jails and police courts and the alcoholic wards of hospitals and correctional institutions partly or totally vacated and the event satisfies them. They liked Prohibition in theory, but doubted its practicability. Now that they know it is not only a good theory, BUT A WORK-ABLE THEORY, they have enlisted in the Prohibition column for good.

Some recent statistics gathered in the large cities of the east tell a wonderful story of Prohibition efficiency, and this at the outset of the new regime. These statistics, for example show that Philadelphia has 1,100 vacant cells in the local house of correction when Prohibition had been in effect two months. The building then housed 474 prisoners, whereas its ordinary complements in the old days was almost 2,000. The alcoholic ward of the Philadelphia General Hospital used to take care of about 150 liquor-drinkers every month. The average has been steadily dwindling since Prohibition became effective. Now the ward, no longer needed, has been abolished.

Baltimore's jail warden, citing the reduction in the number of prisoners in the city prison, declares himself convinced that "this startling condition was due in large measure to the war-time Prohibition act." Connecticut, a state which declined to ratify the Prohibition Amendment, nevertheless is having its jails depopulated by the Prohibition law. Its county reports showed 1,380 jail inmates in September, 1917, but only 744 on February 1, 1919, a figure that was reduced to 314 on February 1 of this year.

In St. Louis, on March 5, for the first time in history, it was stated that the East St. Louis jail was without prisoners, and that no arrests had been made in the twelve hours previous to 8 a. m. The police frankly gave Prohibition as the cause. In San Francisco, in January and February, arrests for the respective months were 2,506 and 1,888, a reduction respectively of 2,062 and 2,117 from the figures of the corresponding months in 1919, when liquor was obtainable.

In Chicago, two branches of the Municipal court have been closed since the Prohibition Amendment became effective. They handled criminal cases, in which liquor generally figured as a contributing cause. In Peoria, Illinois, formerly a center of the whiskey trade, the workhouse had only six prisoners on March 1, as compared with a total of 200 frequently confined there before the advent of Prohibition.

New York Day-By-Day

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, May 15.—It is possible to step from Broadway into Forty Sixth street and enter an almost different world. Forty Sixth street between Broadway and Sixth avenue is movieland. It is lined with moving picture agencies, film clubs and other organizations devoted to the silver sheet. There are also many costume shops.

The sidewalks are filled with "extras"—giants, dwarfs, old men, men with long whiskers, side burns, cowboys, young girls, old women, faces that are wrinkled, flabby and gaunt. There are Chinese, Japanese, Indians, weatherbeaten seamen and almost every type imaginable.

They move up and down the street, gather in little knots at the curb and there is an atmosphere of comradeship that is delightful. Most of them have had their big dreams and are now contented with the realities of life—a job now and then with the ordinary comforts.

There are voyages to Florida, California and even abroad for some but the majority have only jaunts to Ft. Lee and New Rochelle. Particularly they get their recreation in going to the movies just as the actor enjoys going to another play.

Movieland is a street of rumors and high hopes. Griffith is going to stage another spectacle. So and so has quit starring on the screen to go into the legit. Salaries will be doubled.

THE GAME

I am going to the park, where the baseball artists play, and I'm blithe as any lark that uplifts its song today. For a while I can forget, as I watch them sweat the sphere, all the weary things that fret, and the sigh and sob and tear. There'll be time to walk the floor with a weep rag in my hand, when this bully game is over and the visitors are canned. Oh, our pitcher is in form, and a mighty arm is his; when that wing gets good and warm he'll show wizards how to wiz. When I see him winding up I forget that I must drink sorrow from a bitter cup, that will put me on the blink. I forget that rents are high, that the larder's bare of hash, that the children wait for pie, clothing, shoes and succotash. I forget the profiteers who have soaked us left and right, that the bankrupt court appears as the only thing in sight. For awhile I cast aside all my brooding and despair, when I see our heroes slide round the bases on their hair. When I see the joyous mob at the ball games, as of yore, "Well," I murmur, thru a sob, "we are growing sane once more."

For fifty years Pe-ru-na has been the standby of the American family for diseases due to catarrhal inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the organs of the body. Thousands, like Mr. Arendt, have proved the effectiveness of Pe-ru-na for coughs, colds, nasal catarrh, stomach, bowel and liver disorders or any disease characterized by a catarrhal condition. Y.W.C.A. NEWS

By E. E. FARQUHAR

We welcome into our midst "Sandy" Aves. Sandy is the pretty big Scotch Collie owned by our general secretary. He came Friday evening for an extended stay.

Everything is in readiness for the big annual banquet Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Park hotel. A Y. W. banquet means an evening of good fun and all members who have been present at former banquets know what is in store for them. The banquet scheduled for Tuesday evening promises to be the biggest and best ever. You'll be sorry if you miss it.

Monday evening C. B. Hunt will speak on "Citizenship for Women" and Dr. E. C. Carr will talk on "Current Events."

Summer's coming slowly—but surely and so are girls' camps and summer sports.

Reports from national headquarters of the Y. W. C. A. in New York city show that by early June one hundred and fifty-three camps for girls will be in operation in all parts of the country. According to last year's figures over fifty thousand girls spent their vacations in these summer places. Y. W. C. A. camps are run primarily for girls who are employed the year round and have only short vacation periods. The expense of a week or two at camp is a minimum one, giving a maximum of enjoyment in the way of swimming, canoeing, hiking, eating and plain living. Each camp has a camp mother, a director, a food expert, and a swimming and recreation leader. In many states where special high school girls camps are not run the industrial camps are used in the early summer for the school girls. No girl can stay longer than two weeks. Forty summer conferences are scheduled for June, July and August in nineteen states.

From June 2 to June 10 a commission of leaders of the Young Women's Christian Association from all quarters of the world will meet in Champéry, Switzerland, to consider subjects of immediate significance to women in all countries—the conditions of women in industry—and work for immigrant and emigrant young women. Opportunities and needs for international cooperation among the Christian Associations is the general theme for discussion. This is the first international gathering of the association since 1914 and will draw representatives from all countries which send out foreign secretaries, from countries where these secretaries go; and from countries where war work was organized. Australia, Canada, Great Britain, Sweden, the United States, China, Japan, Egypt, India, Africa, South America and eight European countries will have representatives. Thirteen official delegates will go from the United States.

Mrs. E. R. McConnell delightfully entertained the members of her Sunday school class of the First Baptist church Friday evening at headquarters.

Don't forget the banquet Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Park hotel.

JUDGE GEIGER OUT FOR CHIEF JUSTICE

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 15.—Common Pleas Judge Frank W. Geiger announced today that he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

Altho a comparatively young man Judge Geiger has been on the bench for eighteen years. For thirteen years he was judge of the probate court and during that time he established a state-wide reputation as a jurist, his decisions being widely quoted in probate court circles. He was one of the three judges who drafted the Ohio juvenile court law in 1907.

As a result of Judge Geiger's juvenile court work in the early days of that court experts from distant states have visited his court to examine its procedures and the basic decisions laid down by him have been widely copied.

For the last five years Judge Geiger has been judge of the court of common pleas in Clark county, the largest county in the state limited to one judge. His work on the common pleas bench has been quite as efficient as that in the probate court and if he is elevated to the supreme court he will take to the highest bench in the state a wealth of experience which will be invaluable to him there.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., May 15 — Yale won the 27th dual meet from Harvard today by the score of 57 1/2 to 32 1/2.

HALF PRICE OF PAIR OF SHOES IS PROFIT, SAYS THIS ECONOMIST

WASHINGTON, May 15 — More than half the price the consumer pays for a pair of shoes is absorbed by profits, according to W. Jett Lauck, former secretary of the War Labor Board, in a survey of profiteering in the boot and shoe industry made public here today. Lauck is consulting economist of the railroad brotherhood. He has made a detailed study of profiteering in every American industry to support the brotherhoods' plea for a minimum living wage of $2,500 annually.

He places the blame for unreasonable profiteering in shoes jointly on the packer, tanner, manufacturer, wholesaler and retailer, with the heaviest share of guilt on the leather producer.

The entire cost of manufacturing shoes for which the consumer paid $5.50 in 1917 was only $3.45, Lauck said.

The report denies the popular contention that wage increases are responsible for this large advance in price, holding that out of a representative $3.50 increase in price of a pair of shoes, labor receives only 15 cents or less than one twentieth of the advance.

The retailer's margin of profit, Lauck said, is by far the largest absorbing over one third of the price, but it does not show so large an increase as the packers and tanners' profits. As the largest tanneries are indirectly a part of the big packers, varied into it, it can be said, Lauck said, that their profiteering is very largely responsible for the high price of shoes.

The retailer has increased his margin 102 per cent of $1.82 per pair on the basis of shoes selling 16¢-18¢. The manufacturer appears to have increased his profits less than others, although he took his highest profit in 1916 when they were twice the amount he took in 1914.

Lauck said that in 1914 all the labor costs from the hides to the finished shoe absorbed less than one sixth of the price paid by the consumer while in 1917 this share of labor had decreased to one ninth of the price. A wage increase of 35 per cent after 1914, Lauck said, was responsible for a direct increase of merely 15 cents in a pair of shoes.

COSHOCTON WINS IN FIRST GAME WITH THE GALLO TAILORS

Crowd Small But Saturday Game Will Be Continued — Pitchers' Battle Looms Up For Sunday Game

Altho the Gallo Tailors' Columbus, were defeated by the Coshocton Regulars Saturday afternoon by a score of 8 to 4, the visitors will be greatly strengthened for the game Sunday afternoon and the Coshocton team will have a much stiffer contest. The regular third baseman for the Columbus team was unable to be here Saturday. Two pitchers a right hander and a left hander will arrive from Columbus and if Yeager the right hander works it will be a real pitchers' battle as Pavue will be on the firing line for Coshocton and Latham at first base. John Gross will umpire the balls and strikes and John Povelson will work on the bases.

The feature of the game Saturday was the all around playing of M. Laird at second base. He made a double and two singles. Leo Unger hit well in the pinches and pulled down a nice long drive in right center. J. Laird turned his ankle during the game and may possibly be out of the game Sunday. Hart of Cambridge pitched a fine game for Coshocton Saturday and will pitch for Coshocton in the game at Newcomerstown next Saturday.

Saturday's crowd was somewhat disappointing but this was no doubt largely due to the chilliness of the weather. If the attendance is not better for the next few Saturdays teams from nearer cities will be secured for Sunday only. Manager Stull has booked the following teams for Saturday and Sunday games: W. C. Murdoch's Pittsburgh, the East Liverpool Independents, the Wireton Steel plant team, the Springfield All Stars and the Newell W. A. team.

The box score for Saturday's game:

LIVELY TILT

Applicants passed the examination. But neither of the two would accept appointment both preferring to have their names held from the list until such a time as they would desire appointment.

This left three eligibles of the five certified by the commission from which to select two firemen. Civil service law says Mayor Tish requires that three eligibles be certified for the selection of each applicant.

Fire chief James Tracewell announced Saturday night that Lee Phillips and John Crawford two of the men certified at the last examination had been certified to him as the two men who would fill the vacancies.

Both Crawford and Phillips are on the job at the upper fire house. Tracewell said.

Mayor Tish stated that to the best of his knowledge the appointments had not been made.

The position of Warner and Ira Seward former members of the department is shrouded with mystery. It is reported that a committee from the local trades and labor council recently waited upon Mayor Tish protesting the appointment of anyone else but Warner and Ira Seward. A section of the civil service law providing that whenever council reduces a city department coming under the jurisdiction of civil service, the deposit members are placed at the head of the eligible list for appointment whenever there should occur a vacancy is said to have been read to his honor.

It is also said that Warner Seward quitted the state civil service department as a status and received in reply a quotation containing the above section of the civil service code.

Should Warner and Ira yet be appointed further developments can be looked for. A statement of Fire Chief James Tracewell.

port which had reached New York from Nogales but did not give credence to it.

Governor De la Huerta of Sonora president of the revolution has issued a decree calling upon the Mexican senate and chamber of deputies to meet and select a provisional president to report to the revolutionary agency stated today.

General Manuel Merz has declared for Obregon and turned over the southern half of Lower California to the revolutionists, the revolutionary agent was advised today.

VERA CRUZ, May 15. — The battle between Carranza's followers and revolutionary troops near San Marcos was reported today to be in its final stage. Carranza was said to have been advised by General Manuel and General Dariano, two of his most trusted aides to make a supreme effort to cut his way thru the state of Hidalgo and make his escape from the country. The revolutionary leaders leaped of his plan and were preparing to make a strong attack in an effort to frustrate it.

The revolutionists have decided to make reprisals against the Carranzistas for the shooting of Col. Rocha, one of the bravest officers in the revolutionary army. Col. Rocha was captured while leading his men against the Carranza forces at San Andres. He was tried by drumhead court martial and sentenced to be shot.

The fighting has spread from the original zone of battle near San Marcos on the railway line between this city and Mexico City. Carranzista troops made an attack against the revolutionaries in the state of Puebla, but were driven back, losing many.

Eve in Exile

Featuring Charlotte Walker

COSMO HAMILTON'S GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT
A daring unconventional love story from the pen of one of America's foremost authors, proclaimed by the critics who have seen it as Cosmo Hamilton's greatest achievement. Scandal by Cosmo Hamilton ran over a year on the speaking stage. "Eve in Exile" is even more sensational. It is thrilling, daring, sensational, looked by the biggest and best theaters in America for long runs. It is technically a masterpiece. Tinted, toned and subtitled in accordance with the highest standards. It abounds in unusual bizarre situations. It is spic without being risque. Thrilling without being over melodramatic. It will offend none and yet is sure to please a large audience.
